

THE UNWINKING GAZE

DIRECTOR'S BIOGRAPHY

JOSHUA DUGDALE BA MA FRSA (1974 -)

Joshua Dugdale commenced his film making career with the award winning 'Pepe and his Cuban Heels' on life in Cuba. It was snapped up by the BBC with Joshua becoming a producer at BBC Foreign and Current Affairs at the age of 21.

Other notable film productions include 'The Tijuana Cartel' (2001) and the critically acclaimed 'LAPD Blues' (2002).

Joshua has been following the Dalai Lama since 2004 resulting in his first feature length documentary, 'The Unwinking Gaze'.